Podcasting is a medium redefining what it means to broadcast, create a following, and listen and produce audio content. In this Podcast Master Class, facilitator Erin McGregor draws from in-field experience with Queer Public and her in-depth knowledge about how shows such as This American Life, Radio Lab, Invisibilia, Planet Money, and Terry Gross’ Fresh Air put captivating stories and interviews together to draw in listeners. Using elements of news journalism, storytelling, interviews, and conversations, you will learn the necessary skills to produce or host your own podcast. Computers with audio editing software will be provided, and you are encouraged to bring your phone or any other recording device.

Tuesday, March 22
1:30–3:30 p.m.
Humanities Conference Room
Siegel Hall, Room 218
RSVP to Mél Hogan: mhogan7@iit.edu
Seating is limited to 20!